CERTIFICATION FOR PERSONAL CARE ATTENDANT

What is a PCA?

A PCA (Personal Care Attendant) is the “arms and legs” of the rider and provides passenger assistance above and beyond what a Dial-A-Ride driver already offers. A PCA is only for an individual that would not be able to utilize this service without someone with them. It is generally NOT a family member or relative, but, usually an individual paid to care for the person for daily life activities (eating, dressing, personal hygiene, finding your way, etc.)

A PCA rides Dial-A-Ride for free, as their responsibility is focused on the care of the person they are with, not riding as a companion, spouse or friend on the same outing.

15. Do you require the assistance of a personal care attendant? A medical professional will need to verify.

Yes No

Explain how your attendant helps you:

Certification of Applicant

I understand that the purpose of this application is to determine if I am eligible to use ADA Dial-A-Ride. I hereby certify that, to the best of my knowledge, the information I have given in this application is correct and the application will be returned if it is not complete.

I understand that the results of the review will be based on my ability to use the Amador Transit fixed route system. Verification of my disability by my physician or health care professional does not guarantee my eligibility for Amador Transit ADA certification of paratransit service. I understand that falsification of information could result in a loss of ADA Dial-A-Ride as well as a penalty under the law. I agree to notify Amador Transit if I no longer need to use ADA Dial-A-Ride

ADA PROFESSIONAL VERIFICATION FORM

To process this application, Amador Transit needs information about the effects of the applicant's disability on his/her functional capability to ride the regular fixed route bus service. This information is necessary to determine whether he/she is eligible for paratransit service under the regulations of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

The information you provide in this form will aid Amador Transit in making an ADA eligibility determination. For the benefit of the applicant, please answer the questions as fully and accurately as possible. All information will be kept confidential.

The individual's condition must prevent travel on an Amador Transit fixed route, either all of the time, temporarily, or only under certain circumstances. Disability alone and distance to and from a bus stop do not, by themselves, qualify a person for paratransit service. Inconvenience, decreased comfort, and/or pain are not a basis for qualification.
