

TITLE VI POLICY STATEMENT

Amador Transit is committed to providing public transportation in an environment that is free from discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, sex, sexual orientation or gender identity. Amador Transit operates its programs, activities and services without regard to race, color, national origin or gender identity.

As a Federal Transportation Administration (FTA) fund recipient, Amador Transit will ensure that its programs, policies and activities comply with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended and Department of Transportation regulations.

Any person, who believes that he/she, has been subjected to discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, sex, sexual orientation or gender identity, with respect to Amador Transit's programs, activities, services or other transit related benefits, may file a Title VI complaint. Complaints must be filed in writing and signed by the complainant, or a representative and should include the complainants name, address and telephone number or other means by which the complainant can be contacted. Complaints must be filed within one-hundred eighty days (180) of the date of the alleged discriminatory act.

To request additional information on Amador Transit's non-discrimination obligations or to file a Title VI complaint, please submit your request or complaint in writing to:
